

25-27/05/2017

European Solidarity Centre
Gdańsk, Poland

In memoriam Leonidas Donskis (1962–2016)

PROGRAMME

25th May 2017 | Thursday

12.00–16.00

- New Eastern Europe Editorial Board meeting

15.00–17.00

- Guided tour through the permanent exhibition of the European Solidarity Centre

17.00–18.30

ECS, Auditorium → reservation

- The ceremonial opening of the forum
 - / Basil Kerski, director of the European Solidarity Centre
 - / Paweł Adamowicz, mayor of the city of Gdańsk

- Keynote speech

/ Piotr Buras, head of the European Council on Foreign Relations Warsaw office

- Ambassador of New Europe 2016 award for the best book on European issues published in 2016

/ Jan Andrzej Dąbrowski, director of the Jan Nowak-Jezioranski College of Eastern Europe
/ Basil Kerski, director of the European Solidarity Centre

Laureates

- / Nilüfer Göle: “Muzułmanie w Europie”, Publishing house: Wydawnictwo Karakter, Kraków
- / Claudio Magris: “O demokracji, pamięci i Europie Środkowej”, Publishing house: Międzynarodowe Centrum Kultury, Kraków

Discussion with the laureates

/ Agnieszka Lichnerowicz – journalist, TOK FM radio

19.00–20.00

ECS, Auditorium → reservation

- Concert Kwadrofonik

the winner of “Polityka” passports in the field of classical music (2015)

Magdalena Kordylasińska (percussion instruments),
Miłosz Pękała (drums),
Emilia Sitarz (piano),
Bartłomiej Wąsik (piano)

26 May 2017 | Friday

7.00–9.00

ECS, Winter garden

- PORANEK RADIA TOK FM (live broadcast)

10.00–11.30

ECS, Temporary Exhibition Hall → reservation

- Europe with a view to the future Introduction

/ Basil Kerski, director of the European Solidarity Centre

- Panel I

Russia – 100 years after the revolution.
A return to imperial politics in Europe?

- How did the 1917 revolutions change Russia and Europe?
- What is the attitude towards revolutions in countries that have been affected by them?
- What does the return of imperial policy in Russia mean for the future of Russia and Europe?

Panelists

- / Anna Maria Dyner, political scientist, Polish Institute of International Affairs
- / Roman Kabaczij, historian, journalist, Institute of Mass Information in Kyiv
- / Paweł Kowal, historian, politician, columnist, Polish Academy of Science, editorial board member of New Eastern Europe
- / Nikita Pietrow, historian, Memorial Society

Host

- / Cornelius Ochmann, European policy specialist, director of the Foundation for Polish-German Cooperation, editorial board member of New Eastern Europe

Discussion with the participants

12.30–14.00

ECS, Temporary Exhibition Hall

■ Panel II

Antiliberal counter-revolutions. How are they changing Europe?

- What are the sources and specifics of anti-liberal attitudes in Europe?
- Are the anti-liberal “counterrevolutions” creating new alliances in Europe and will they create new leaders?
- How should we react to illiberal policies in Europe?

Panelists

- / Adam Balcer, political scientist, WiseEuropa, Centre for East European Studies, University of Warsaw
- / György Dalos, writer and historian
- / Nilgün Arisan Eralp, director of the European Union Department at the Institute of the Economic Policy Research Foundation of Turkey (TEPAV)
- / Charles Gati, political scientist, Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies

Host

- / Irene Hahn-Fuhr, political scientist, director of the Warsaw office of the Heinrich Böll Foundation

Discussion with the participants

15.30–17.00

ECS, Temporary Exhibition Hall

■ Panel III

Collective memory – a space for conflict or dialogue?

- What narration about history do we want to shape among future generations?
- What is the impact of historical policies on foreign policy?
- Can collective memory influence development of dialogue between nations?

Panelists

- / Bogumiła Berdychowska, Polish philologist, columnist specialising in Polish-Ukrainian issues
- / Georges Mink, historian, French Academy of Sciences, College of Europe, Natolin Campus, editorial board member of New Eastern Europe

- / Anastazja Sergiejewa, activist, For Free Russia initiative

- / Robert Traba, historian, director of the Centre for Historical Research of the Polish Academy of Sciences in Berlin

- / Lev Zakharchyshyn, Consul General of Ukraine in Gdańsk

Host

- / Jacek Kołtan, philosopher, deputy director of the European Solidarity Centre

Discussion with the participants

17.30–19.30

ECS, Temporary Exhibition Hall

■ European reflection

In what kind of Europe do we want to live?

Europe 60 years after the signing of the Treaty of Rome?

Keynote speech

- / Aleksander Kwaśniewski, the president of Poland in 1995–2005

Comments

- / Vesna Marjanović, politician, member of the Serbian parliament on behalf of the Democratic Party
- / Marek Prawda, sociologist, diplomat, head of the European Commission Representation in Poland
- / Eugeniusz Smolar, political scientist, Centre for International Relations, editorial board member of New Eastern Europe
- / Sylke Tempel, journalist, editor in chief of Internationale Politik

Host

- / Jacek Żakowski, journalist and columnist, head of the department of journalism at the Collegium Civitas in Warsaw

27 May 2017 | Saturday

10.00–13.00

limited number of places → invitations

■ Gdańsk walking tour

Stories about multicultural city will be delivered by Mieczysław Abramowicz, writer and theater historian, theater director

■ ORGANIZATIONAL INFORMATION

Wi-Fi

→ free access

Underground parking

→ free

Coffee breaks

→ non stop

Lunch

→ May 26, 14.00–15.30